THE Philadelphia Bulletin prefers very grave charges against the Pennsylvania State Agent who was charged with the collection of our war claims against the United States Government. It openly charges that he is a defaulter to the amount of $365,000 due the State. THE Germans of New York are becoming daily more pronounced and emphatic in their repudiations of the Democratic ring. Not a few who have long been identified with the party are renouncing their allegiance, The condemnation which the Staats Zeit ung expresses is significant of their restiveness. Many of them have for some time been conscious that the association was neither profitable nor honorable to them. and the recent developments have enforced the wisdom of entirely cutting loose.

THE Kentucky election was a solid Re publican triumph. Democratic protestations to the contrary notwithstanding. The fact that the Republican vote has been near ly doubled, while that of the Democracy is increased but very slightly, is a substantial times. gain. Eighty thousand Republicans to a hundred and fifteen thousand Democrats is a much better showing than thirty thousand Republicans to a hundred thousand Democrats. THE Baltimore American asks the question, "Have we a Baltimore Tammany?" and then states that the printing firm of Messrs. Kelley & Piet were paid $6000 for printing five hundred copies and plans for the improvement of Jones' Falls, a job which could have been done at a fair profit for $1,482. Baltimore is under Democratic government, and the printing was ordered by the First Branch of the City Council. The Second Branch did not concur, but nevertheless the work was done and paid for, giving the contractors a clear profit of $4,518. Thus we invariably find corruption and extravagance wherever Democracy

THE crisis in Indian affairs in this coun try is evidently near at hand. What to do with the Red Man is a question which must be settled very soon. Reports from the Northwest show that the fighting Indians, driven from the region traversed by the Pacific Railroad, are concentrated just south of the line of the British possessions. Gen. Sheridan seems to think they will need more intimidation-more killing probably. And Gen. Hancock wants to know if the government is to feed these tribes crowded up against the frontier. The present polic; of the government would appear to be to drive the Indians together, where they can exterminate cach other.

The Democratic Programme.

Below we publish a circular, issued by the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, which we copy from the Harrisburg Telegraph, in which Mr. Wallace lays out the work of the campaign for his party friends. Not being certain that all whom he addresses would receive a copy, we give it a gratuitous insertion, out of pure courtesy to its au-

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS, CLEARFIELD, PA., July 17th, 1871. - Dear Sir: I address you as an carnest and active Democrat. > We have regarded the New York Sun as rather Democratic than Republican in its leanings yet it speaks as follows of the political prospect in this State: "Two months. ago no future event was more probable than the success of the Democratic party in the October election in Pennsylvania. That prospect has now been changed, and the Republicans are likely to carry the State by a sufficient if not a large majority. This remarkable change is not due to any diminution of the feeling of antagonism toward President Grant and his administration. The question has been settled in Pennsylvania by the riot of July 12, in New York city and the circumstances which preceded and attended that event. These things have excited a feeling among the people of the State which no party organization can withstand. The conduct of the Tammany managers in this city on that memorable occasion has lost Pennsylvania to the Democracy." We do not accord in the view of the Sun that Pennsylvania was ever sure to the Democracy, but the fact that a journal which once thought so, now thinks differently is one of the signs of the

THE city of Raleigh, North Carolina, was thrown into a wild state of excitement on Friday a week on the arrival of the western train, when the fact became known that As-Keith had in limbo a band of disgussed Ku Klaz, captured by them the night previous in Moore county. The marshals had in charge and marched through Fayetteville street, about a dozen white men, five of whom were in full uniform. The disguise, which was of the most frightful and ludicrous character, was made of black glazed cambrie, face covered with the same, with holes for the mouth and eyes, touched off with a white substance. The hat, made of taxation, but under a total repeal of all dilike material, is cone shaped, and about thirty-six inches in height. These gentry were marched up to United States Commissioner Shaffer's office, where an examination was waived.

Showing the Difference in the Condition of the State for Ten Years under Democratic Rule, and Ten Years under Republican Management.

The Democrats had an almost unbroken rule in Pennsylvania from 1850 to 1860, and the Republicans have been in power most of the time from 1860 to 1871. The record made by these parties, within those periods, in the management of the finances of the State, is a fair test by which to try them.

The State debt on the 1st of December 1850, and on the same date of the ten years following, is given in the following table, compiled from the annual reports of the LIGHTNING played some queer and rather disagreeable pranks in and about the house of Sylvester Preston, at Atrim, N. H., last week. After setting a bed in the L part on fire, and tearing out the north side of the house, one current passed to the barn, where debt remained almost unchanged for six a horse was killed and the ground plowed up. Another current went through the siting four years, but a trifle, as these figures ting room, took off the top of a table at which two ladies were sitting, and tossed it State debt Dec. 1, 1850 $40,785.485 42 half way cross the room, without injuring the women, threw the looking glass into a bed room opposite, then went out between the windows, tearing the woodwork completely away, and whirling one of the ladies OAK, PINE AND HEMLOCK BILL TIMBER. from the sitting room through the parlor, in a manuer which she said seemed like flying.

> A curious observer states that the Cali fornia ant eating weednecker, in storing its provisions for winter use, digs a small round hole in the bark of the pine or oak, and into these inserts an acorn so tightly wedged in as to be with difficulty extracted. The bark of the pine tree, when thus filled, presents at a short distance the appearance of being studded with brass headed nails. Stowed away in large quantities in this manner, the acorns not only supply the wants of the woodpecker, but the squirrels, mice and jays avail themselves likewise of the fruits of provident labor.

> DURING the late Franco-German war cross was placed over a grave in a cemetery near the battlefield at Worth, bearing the inscription : "Here repose three brave comades." Germans and French regarded the grave as the resting place of three brave fellows who had fought and died together. But recently the cross disappeared, and the people learned that al Frenchman, relying upon the immunity accorded to a grave, had placed some choice wine instead of "three brave comrades" in the cemetery.

THE disaster at the Pittston mines adds another to the list of terrible accidents from badly ventilated mines. It is not known at this time how many deaths have occurred, but it is entirely probable that all who were in the mine at the time of the explosion perished. The question of preventing explosions in mines evidently needs closer attention than it has thus far received.

THE Postal Conference now in session a Berlin has just made an excellent suggestion. It is that treaties should be entered into by the European and American powers for the purpose of establishing uniform rates of postage regardless of distance. Combine this arrangement with cheap ocean postage, and it would be one of the most beneficial reforms that could be established.

THE remarks of visitors at Saratoga who drink for the first time the mineral waters are often amusing. Said an obese-gentleman who had just emptied a glass of crystal spring water, and which really taster like condensed rotten eggs-"Bub, this water is fit only for hogs to drink." "Yes, sir," replied bub, with a twinkle in his eye, "have some more?"

THE retrenchment policy of the present Administration is carried even into such small items as stationery. In the Treasury Department alone this expense has been cut down nearly one half.
